

 Cultivating a bee-friendly
wildflower garden

late winter

spring

summer

fall

- blue bells (1)
- snow queen (2)
- snowdrops (3)
- sweet peas (4)

- forget-me-nots (5)
- lupine (6)
- rosemary (7)
- honeysuckle (8)

- lavendar (9)
- borage (10)
- sunflower (11)
- goldenrod (12)

- hardy ageratum (13)
- echinacea (14)
- sky blue aster (15)
- frost aster (16)

general bloom times are shown above - check for local varieties' specific needs

When do these bee-friendly plants bloom best?

JAN FEB MAR APR MAY JUN JUL AUG SEP OCT NOV DEC

blue bells

snow queen

snowdrops

sweet peas

forget-me-nots

lupine

Plant bee-friendly flowers in either spring or autumn in order to maximize their potential for flourishing!

rosemary

honeysuckle

lavendar

borage

sunflower

goldenrod

hardy ageratum

echinacea

sky blue aster

frost aster

Research and photos for this publication collected with the help of Walama Restoration Project.

www.beyondtoxics.org