

Carter McKenzie

Poet, teacher,
Beyond Toxics board member

A founding member of Airlie Press, Carter McKenzie is the author of the chapbook Naming Departure (Traprock Books) and a full-length book of poetry Out of Refusal (Airlie Press). Her poetry has appeared in various journals and anthologies, and her essay "A Simple Instrument" is included in the anthology The Berkeley Poets Cooperative: A History of the Times, edited by Charles Entekin. Through affiliation with Young Writers Association and libraries, and through private arrangements, Carter teaches poetry workshops to students of all ages in Eugene, Oregon, and in the surrounding rural areas. She lives in the Cascade Foothills with her youngest daughter.
